DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office action is in response to the Response to Election/Restriction Requirement filed 10/26/2009. Claims 1-4 of Group I have been elected without traverse.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 2, line 4, "(wherein" is suggested to be changed to --wherein--; line 8, "(R¹ represents" is suggested to be changed to --R¹ represents--; line 19, " "form a ring)")" is suggested to be changed to --form a ring--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 2-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 2, lines 1-2, “the repeating unit of a block containing a halogen atom” causes confusion. Is it referred to “the repeating unit of a block having substantially no acid group containing a halogen atom”?

Claim 2, lines 17-18, “any of R¹ and Y (when there are plural groups, at least one of them) contains a halogen atom” causes confusion. Is “there are plural groups, at least one of them” referred to the condition: when there are more than one of each R¹ and Y, at least one of them contains a halogen atom? If it is the case, it is different from the condition: any of R¹ and Y (.....) contains a halogen atom.

Claim 3, line 2, “a block containing a halogen atom” causes confusion. Is it referred to “a block having substantially no acid group containing a halogen atom”?

Claim Analysis

5. Summary of Claim 1:

A block copolymer characterized in that said block copolymer has at least one block having an acid group and at least one block having substantially no acid group, one end group of a repeating unit in at least one block of all blocks is oxygen and/or sulfur, and at least one repeating unit of a block having substantially no acid group contains a halogen atom.

Summary of Claim 2:

The block copolymer according to claim 1, wherein the repeating unit

of a block containing a halogen atom is represented by the following general formula:

wherein X represents an oxygen atom or a sulfur atom, and Ar1 and Ar2 represent independently a divalent aromatic group represented by the following formula:

R ¹	an C ₁₋₁₀ alkyl group, a halogenated C ₁₋₁₀ alkyl group, a halogenated aryl group, a hydroxyl group, an acetyl group, a benzoyl group, a nitrile group, a nitro group or a halogen atom, When there are plural R ¹ 's, they may be the same or different, or R ¹ 's may be bound together so that the bond constitutes a part of a cyclic structure,
a, b and c	independently an integer of 0 to 4, a sum of b and c is 0 to 6, d	an integer of 0 to 2,
Y	a direct bond, -O-, -S-, -C(O)-, -SO ₂ -, -C(R ²) ₂ -, an C ₁₋₆ alkylene group, a halogenated C ₁₋₁₀ alkylene group, an C ₁₋₆ alkylenedioxy group, or a halogenated C ₁₋₁₀ alkylenedioxy group, when there are plural Ys, these may be the same or different, R ² 's = an C ₁₋₁₀ alkyl group, or a halogenated C ₁₋₁₀ alkyl group, two R ² 's may be the same or different, or may form a ring.
any of R ¹ and Y (when there are plural groups, at least one of them) contains a halogen atom, and

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

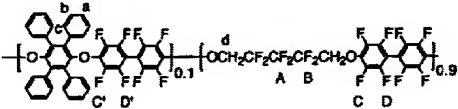

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miyatake et al. [Macromolecules, 34, 2065-2071 (2001)].

Miyatake et al. disclose a polymer electrolyte for fuel cells, wherein the polymer electrolyte comprises an aromatic copolymer containing sulfonated tetraphenyl phenylene (hexaphenylbiphenylene), fluorinated alkane, perfluorobiphenylene moieties (col. 1, page 2065; page 2068):

one block having an acid group one end group of a repeating unit in at least one block of all blocks is oxygen and/or sulfur	one block having substantially no acid group one repeating unit of a block having substantially no acid group containing a halogen atom

Thus, the present claims are anticipated by the disclosure of Miyatake et al.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. In view the Response to Election/Restriction, the following species has been elected for the block containing a halogen atom ($-\text{Ar}^1\text{-X-Ar}^2\text{-X}-$). Since no reference teaches or fairly suggests a block copolymer comprising such a block, the block copolymer is allowable.

Conclusion
